

A 'Friday Celebration' note from Miss. Bennett...

Happy VE Day to all. I hope lots of you are celebrating the 75th Anniversary today, don't forget to have your minute silence at 11am. Imagine 75 years ago the emotions of the people who finally heard the announcement about the end of the war with Germany. Have lots of fun today!

I can't believe how the weeks just go! Another busy week for all and I know lots of new skills have been acquired and mastered by lots of you. A special mention to Rhys at Husthwaite who has learnt to tie his shoelaces and Dexter at Sessay who has been persevering in following instructions for his Lego. Also, as always, I have loved hearing all about the superb 'Home Learning' that you have been continuing with this week.

A huge well done to all of you. Remember to take a minute to think about everything you have done this week and decide what your biggest achievement has been. Remember to write or draw it at the end of your diary entry for today.

Have a great weekend and enjoy the warm weather today 😊
